

POEM

LET US BREAK THIS INVISIBLE WALL !

MOHINI GURAV

Asst. Prof. Dept. of English,

GMD Arts, BW Com and Sci College,

Nashik. India

LET US BREAK THIS INVISIBLE WALL !

This unwanted invisible wall is day by day incessantly growing tall.
Built by strong bricks of discriminations like
Gender, religion, caste and class.
Brings humanity's downfall.
Unheard remain issues and problems.
Someday hopefully they may get solved.

Sad to see the moral values decline
Still no remorse or repentance sign.
Intelligent heads without hearts involved
Selfishness and insensitivity unknowingly got evolved
Pondering what makes them proudly
Pretend and call the best of all .

Man has grown insensitively tall
Greed for materialistic world makes
Him greedily and helplessly crawl .
Rapes, molestation, exploitation,
Genocides, murders and bomb-blasts
Have become a part of this so-called civilized world so small.

Love, care and concern are not to be found at all.
Have mercy and please break this invisible wall.

Let us all survive with peace and harmony.
Bring back the lost love and humanity
Remember, it cannot be bought with tons of money.
Love and brotherhood feelings will save earth
and will teach us to face future testimony.

Today bathing in the optimistic
Indiscriminative light of bright shining moon .
Looking forward for the day
when all will be harmoniously tuned .
Before we get lost and doomed , let us all be united and try our best to break this invisible wall soon .